

DPAC NOTES

From the DPAC Meeting of April 16 2013

1. AGM - Wil Lonquist was acclaimed as DPAC chair for a two-year term.
2. Languages – Scott Redgrove advises that he has been in discussions about possibly introducing more opportunities for language education - not to teach languages, but more to familiarize students with other modern languages and cultures, such as Punjabi, Italian, etc, as all focus in the Kamloops area currently is on French.
3. Bussing Policy - Trustees advised that there will be no fees for bussing next year, the courtesy policy will continue as is, but walk limits will be reviewed..
4. Askable Adult - Barriere reported that, although attendance was not strong due to remote location, the presentation was very well received by those who attended.
5. Innovation Grant - Westsyde Secondary report that they were successful with the 'Innovation Grant' application, and will be doing a renovation on their library.
6. BCCPAC - spring conference will be May 3-5 in the Lower Mainland.
