

The Role of the Vice-Chair

The main role of the vice-chair is to support the chair and to take over that role in his/her absence. Many chairs ask their vice-chairs to preside over one or two meetings during the year to give them experience in the role. For the purpose of this training session, all vice-chairs will be treated as chairs. Congratulations on the promotion!